

2012 Children's Summer Reading Program

Dream Big
READ!

Registration begins May 29

From June 4 to July 7, children as young as preschoolers to grade six are invited to visit their local public library, read at least one book per week and receive a free reading incentive, while supplies last. Hawaii's public libraries will provide free fun programs and activities encouraging young readers to revel in the wonders of night—dreams, lullabies, bedtime and campfire stories, as well as ghosts, nocturnal animals, and star-gazing!

The five week program will also feature excellent, family-friendly storytelling performances statewide by mainland and local artists. For more information, contact your local public library or visit www.librarieshawaii.org.

The Children's Summer Reading Program is generously sponsored through a grant from the Friends of the Library of Hawai'i, Marriott Resorts Hawai'i, Ko Olina Hawai'i, Meadow Gold Dairies, HMS Host, Hansen Distribution Group, Armstrong Produce, Bowman Connectivity Solutions, Toshiba Business Solutions, Girard's Dressing, Roberts Hawaii, The Harry & Jeanette Weinberg Foundation, National Football League Charities, Aloha United Way, and local Friends Chapters. Corporate sponsors include McDonald's Restaurants of Hawaii, First Insurance Company of Hawaii, The Islander Group, American Farm Bureau Foundation, and Candlewick Press. Performances featuring artists from the Statewide Cultural Extension Program are co-sponsored by the University of Hawaii's Outreach College, Hawaii State Foundation on Culture and the Arts, and the National Endowment for the Arts.
