Protected classes covered by this policy include race, color, sex (including gender identity or expression), sexual orientation, condition of pregnancy, act of breastfeeding or expressing milk, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, physical or mental disability, genetic information, marital status, arrest and court record (except as permitted by applicable laws), income assignment for child support, national guard absence, uniformed service, veteran status, citizenship status (except as permitted by applicable laws), credit history or credit report (unless directly related to a bona fide occupational qualification), domestic or sexual violence victim status (if the domestic or sexual violence victim provides notice to the victim’s employer of such status or the employer has actual knowledge of such status), or any other classification protected under applicable state or federal laws.

The Department of Education expressly prohibits retaliation against anyone because they engaged in protected activity. Protected activity is defined as anyone who files a complaint of discrimination, participates in complaint proceedings dealing with discrimination, inquires about their rights under discrimination laws, or otherwise opposes acts of discrimination.

The Department of Education provides reasonable accommodations to applicants and employees with physical or mental disabilities, including pregnancy-related disabilities, breastfeeding or expressing milk, victims of sexual or domestic abuse, or for bona fide religious purposes, upon request, if needed and to the extent required by law.

The Department of Education shall develop regulations and procedures relating to this policy.
