

2012 Teen Summer Reading Program

Registration begins May 29

OWN the NIGHT

From June 4 to July 7, teens in grades 7-12 are invited to visit their local public library, read at least one book per week and receive a free reading incentive, while supplies last. Hawaii's public libraries will provide free fun programs and activities encouraging teens to revel in the wonders of night – dreams, mysteries, suspense and campfire stories, nocturnal animals, jobs and careers involving night-shifts, astronomy and star-gazing!

The five-week program will also feature family-friendly performances statewide by mainland and local artists. Participating teens may also enter to win an Apple iPod Shuffle and other great prizes!

For more information, contact your local public library or visit www.librarieshawaii.org.

The Teen Summer Reading Program is generously sponsored through a grant from the Friends of the Library of Hawai'i, Marriott Resorts Hawaii, Ko Olina Hawaii, Meadow Gold Dairies, HMS Host, Hansen Distribution Group, Armstrong Produce, Bowman Connectivity Solutions, Toshiba Business Solutions, Girard's Dressing, Roberts Hawaii, The Harry & Jeanette Weinberg Foundation, National Football League Charities, Aloha United Way, and local Friends Chapters. Corporate Sponsors include Hawaii Pizza Hut, Frito-Lay of Hawaii, and The Islander Group. Performances featuring artists from the Statewide Cultural Extension Program are co-sponsored by the University of Hawaii's Outreach College, Hawaii State Foundation on Culture and the Arts, and the National Endowment for the Arts.
